"Tristan + Isolde"

I'm with the ocean...

I watch the sun set...

I hoist the sail...

to greet another day
without your presence

Will the light shine on me as it did on you?

"Why does it feel so wrong loving you?"

Would you speak to me?

as willows

intertwined

our hearts align

on a far and distant shore

will we ever find peace

may we lay

ourselves to rest

my love

Speak to me
