Story of me

This is my life!

This is my story!

This is my reality and i welcome you to it.

Don\'t expect too much thought.

This is me and i won\'t change.

If you don\'t like it you\'re the one that suffers! Not me.

Nothing you say or do will change me.

This is who i am, This is what i do.

I will never step away from my beliefs. Will you?

Like a leaf in the wind you just follow along.

You are different from me, I stand my ground like a stone.

No~one can move me.

I will be around until the end of time.

You are different from me.

My heart is like me... Stone, and will never open again.

Try and you will shatter it into a thousand pieces.
