En av mina engelska dikter.Denna skrev jag för länge sedan.

I just...

I just want you to hold me

Hold me like if it was for the last time you had arms

I just want you to look at me

Look at me like if it was for the last time you had eyes

I just want you to kiss me

Kiss me like if it was for the last time you had lips

I just want you to love me

Love me like if it was your last minutes alive
