The Crow brings a message of Death.....

The Crows....Guardians of Life and Death....

Every Crow is differ...

Though they may seem all alike...

The Messengers of Death....

And Guardians of Night....

For those who stops to listen..

The Crows will tell a Story....

About the lives of many...

And stands for Death and Glory...

So when your Time has come...

And all goes in to Shade....

Remember these Words Always...

"The Crows will never Fade..."
