well..skrev det för ett bra tag sehn nu..anyway..

börjar närma sijh nu Lepran... snart två år utan dijh här...

du är fortfarande MER än saknad....

Divide...

That night something wasn't right my deepest fear, turned out to be real I felt it inside, but calmed myself down maybe it was my mind creation, only an imagination

The sun is like you, it's a star too
shining so bright in the sky
David, goodbye... goodbye for now

It was strange, this world had been changed couldn't control, were a knife in my soul tearing me apart with the veracity Refuse to believe anything was wrong didn't want to see what it all had become

The sun is like you, it's a star too
shining so bright in the sky
David, goodbye.. goodbye for now

That morning i read the words the words that spelled the truth It's naturally to wonder, trying to understand n'; yeah we're asking but no need to answer us why Angels are allowed to fly...
