I miss you

I miss you,

I really do,

I would like it to be you and me, but we can't turn back the time, we have to go seperate ways, it's the best for both of us, even though I really do want you, \cause you were my world, but now I have to erase my univers, to build up my soul from scratch, but you'll always be a part in my heart,

I really miss you,

I wonder if you miss me too, but it doesn't matter anymore, it's over and I have to carry on, so this will be my last good bye.
