Do you want to play?

play with me

I will play with you

You won't play tomorrow

play today
the last day

tomorrow

you will look empty
in my eyes

so let's play today

don't run
away

do you think I will hurt you

I will

If you don't play

I will take your heart and throw it on the ground

I will look at you with killing eyes and force you to look back

I will make you feel a pain you can't stand

I will kill you with my own two hands so.....

do you want to play?
