En till sång om min biologiska pappa... har inte skrivit klart hela , men men

Still alive in me

So many things remands me.

I can't hold them of.

It's so hard to hide and,

I feel I lose control.

What is wrong and what is true?

Feel so confused for you.

I don't know what I see for you,

But I know what I don't want to do.

* I don't want to cry.

I don't want to make a smile.

I don't want to remember.

I hope it's over now,

but it's still alive in me.

I don't want to show it,

all the weakness in my soul.

I don't want to turn me down.

It's maybe over now.

But it's still alive in me.
