You and Me

I don\'t know what happend between you and me
But i do know that i was forced to set you free
I\'ve never felt so much love before i met you
And i will never feel it either

I don\'t know if i want to know what made you stand up and go
Don\'t know if i did it wrong
But my life will still go on

I loved you with all my heart
You broked it and tore my life apart
Now it\'s just me standing here
Without any fear of being alone

I\'st your desicion, your misstake
I\'ve realized that you were fake
I can, want and will find someone better
But i can still feel your touch lika a feather

In my heart and in my dreams
It seems like i\'ll never forget you
But for sure is that i\'ll never regret you
