En flickvän var otrogen och jag försökte få ner mina tankar om henne till en låttext. Skriven för några år sedan.

Leave Me Alone

I don't need your dirty love
There's a name for girls like you
I don't want your dirty love
You belong in the gutter, I know that you do
You've hurt me for the last time
And it can never be like before
You can take your stinking attitude
And shove it out the door

Chorus:

Oh, I wish you'd die
I wish you'd break down and cry
You cut me to the bone
You better leave me alone

There's shattered glass and torn up photos on the floor
&Cause I couldn't stand to see your pictures anymore
I don't want you touching me
It's enough, trying to live with the memory
Now I'm alone, but I'm free
You're a slut and a pathetic liar
I want you to die and burn in the fire

You better leave me alone

Leave me alone
