Förr skrev jag många försök till egna låttexter. Blev kär i en tjej och hade henne i tankarna när denna skrevs

Miss You

I got to tell you what I feelin' inside
'Cause I just can't hold it any longer
And I need to show what I can't hide
My feeling for you just growing stronger
You're so beautiful and I love your style
I start to fantasize about your perfect smile
Heaven is a girl that makes dreams come true
And I swear, my heaven is you

Chorus:

I'm feeling alone, I'm feeling blue
I miss you, miss you
I'm feeling blue, I'm feeling alone
Oh, I miss you so much, it hurts to the bone
I miss you, miss you

I close my eyes and dream
About your fingers through my hair
I dream about kissing you
The taste is sweeter than the air
Girl, I wish you knew the way I felt
Through the years I have dreamed of someone like you
The happiness you bring is my wish come true

I close my eyes and dream
About my fingers through your hair
I dream about kissing you
The taste is sweeter than the air

Next time you're with me, I'll hold you tight
If you don't mind
Then I will ask you to stay, if just for one night
A girl like you is so hard to find
I have wished and my wish came true
The greatest thing on earth is to be with you
