En engelsk-språkig dikt inspirerad av ett vampyr-rollspel jag ska börja spela

The vampire

The hunger

it's the hunger

it's raging throughout my body

it's tearing me asunder from the inside

it's calling for me

It tells me things

things only I hear

not everyone hear it not even all of my clan does

but

I know it's the truth

I know it will let me know it will let me know as soon as the hunger

is satisfied

as soon as I have fed as soon as I've kissed another one as soon as I've given in to it

If I don't

I will lose my strength

I will lose my mind

I will lose myself

But most importantly

I will lose this chance

my chance to start anew

I need to feed
