know this within

Know that the end is nigh
You cannot escape your fright Know that your life will end
That you will surely end up dead

It's only a question of time
Not when, how or why Darkness will swallow you whole
And devour your body and soul

Yet it is still your choice you will die, like all girls and boys but will you stand tall and accept your defeat or remain a coward who lies down and weep?
nothing is this simple however but still, try to follow your hearts beat and find the hidden meaning wihtin.
