En till dikt på engelska

Dare to dream

If I could only have the courage
To show you that I care
I'd tell you 'bout my feelings,
And all the thoughts to share.

If I could only say today
How much you mean to me,
That you are all I think about
And you're my fantasy.

If I could only touch your face
And look into your eyes,
If only I could tell you
But my hands get cold as ice.

If I could sit beside you
And watch the setting sun,
Or simply watch the clouds go by
Oh, that would be such fun.

If I could only do these things
Which I think I never could.
Coz I fear that you would go away
If I do the things I should.
