Meet your lips against mine , holding my hands and hug me softly...

I love you so much.

Every evening I undo my hands and pray that it will be you and me.

There are songs in me that I want to sing for you.

I am awake at night and feel regret.

You are my only hope, so wake me from nightmares.

Wake me up inside and give me your love.

Meet your lips against mine, grab hold of my hand and hug me softly.

Tell me you love me, that it will be you and me forever.

And I will be your.

You are my only hope.

Let my song unite us.

Meet your lips against mine, holding my hands and hug me softly.
