Love of my life

Did it come from your heart when you said goodbye?
Was it really that easy for your feelings to die?
Didn't you mean all the words that you had said?
And what about those kisses in the bed?
Do you remember how we used to fall asleep on the phone
Even when we were apart we knew that we weren't alone
I used to fall asleep to the sound of your voice
And I would do it every night if it was my choice
I remember how you used to hold me in your embrace
And when you smiled I saw the sincerity in your face
I know that you loved me, I know that for a fact
Despite everything that happened our love was still intact
But then came that day when you said you had to leave
And you said some things that I still can't believe
If we would meet now what would you do?
Would you stay and talk if I'd approach you?
Would you walk away and turn the other cheek?
Or would you stick around so that we could speak?

Do you remember that rainy day when we first met
We sat on a bench and we shared a cigarette
I held your hand as you sat next to me
Your eyes were closed because I didn't want you to see
Never will I ever forget that day in July
When you looked deep into my dark brown eyes
I knew right there that I loved you so
And that I would never let you go

It's over now and we will both move on
But my love for you will never be gone
It's always there, somewhere deep inside
As time goes by it just won't seem to subside

I'll always love you and you'll always be on my mind
'Cuz someone as great as you is impossible to find
