I Miss You

For each passing moment and day
yet another part of me slips away
I wish that you could have stayed
Here with me, for just one more lousy day

I remember when we grew up together
We thought our friendship would last forever
That nothing in this world could break us apart
All that's left now is the pain in my heart

And all those silly plans that we had made
Are just memories that with time will fade
I cry, 'cus there's nothing left to do
About the pain and hurt I feel, now that I've lost you

Remember that warm summernight?
We sat outside your house and heard your parents fight
You didn't have to say it, 'cus I had seen it in your eyes
That your father had packed and said his last goodbye's

I can still see it clearly, like it was yesterday the last time I saw you, waved back and turned away
That moment will never ever come again
'Cus I have lost you, my soulmate and my friend
I hope that you know that I love you so
Your memory won't fade 'cus I'll never let it go...
