låttext, ska snart starta band, och detta är min första låt till det bandet. skriven till min underbara pojkvän Micke.

fly away

Fly away,

I want to fly away!

Far above the world,

Far above all pain.

Fly away,

Yes I want to fly away.

Lift you up

and take you with me,

fly to places where we could be

free.

Remember all those times that we've been fighting?

And know that they don't matter anymore!

Just know that all my loving will be with you

All the time until all our days end.

Fly away,

I want to fly away!

Far above the world,

Far above all pain.

Fly away,

Yes I want to fly away.

Lift you up

and take you with me,

fly to places where we could be

free.

It doesn't matter what other people tell us,

As long as we're together we'll be good!

Just knowing that you'll be there for me endlessly,

Standing by my side, that gives me strength.

Fly away,

I want to fly away!

Far above the world,

Far above all pain.

Fly away,

Yes I want to fly away.
Lift you up
and take you with me,
fly to places where we could be free.

Fly away?
Say would you fly away?
Far above the world,
Far above all pain?
Fly away,
Do you want to fly away.
Hold me up and take me with you
Fly to places where we could be Free.

Fly away,
We shall fly away!
Far above the world,
Far above all pain.
Fly away,
Yes we will fly away!
hold each other up and lift us
Fly to places where we will be Free.
