Somehow, I think this is the right thing to believe in. Somehow, I have to...

Soulmates never dies

Soulmates never dies

Because they can wake each other up

Even if they are both dead

Everything you need to say is

I love you and won't leave you

Wake up now

I need you

"Only your voice can get past the silence. Very rude of you. I was sleeping so well. But I don't mind. You're my soulmate."

That's the secret password

No roses or sex acts

Can beat the love of words

That will always be true

Love is the power of God

Soulmates are the creation of God

Soulmates never dies
