Changed again

Tell me my life's fucked and ill greatte you with a kiss on the lip Cuz I know its true.
Ive lost friend's and love I've gained love and friends but what those that tell about me.
Ive been your tail
I've been your second,
You have second handed and tailed me back.
But what does that tell about me?

Im a shifter
I shift place I shift my world and everything Is spinning I love to go around to know that Its new

Don't tell me you know me before you have seen how I am because Im never the same Ive got new looks and new moods changing every month

people say whats up with me But my friends doesn't bother, they know me to well they know I will come a round Cuz my life Is like a roller coaster, going up and down to the lowest of the high.

Cuz im a shifter I change like a chameleon
I shift every time it doesn't feel right you know im only trying to find myself somewhere where am I why is everything twisting?
oh... I know Its because Im shifting

I am happy with my self for a while than I change my mind and go back to "normal"

If I am “normal”

Than a while later I go back

I shift and find my new hobby or is it stile

maby... I don't know what comes up next
