Hyllning till det förgångna året som rubbade min balans

LET THE RAIN COME

One Love died

another swept me away blossomed and healed me

One voice became silent another whispered into my heart vibrant and crystal clear; Will you love me like there's no tomorrow

One heart stopped beating another started to race against mine obsessed by the thought of newborn intimacy and adventure

One body stopped desiring another was awakened by me fearless and without restraints

One fire was tamed and burned out another started to burn uncontrolled

One reality yesterday another reality today I stepped from breakdown to childish dreams and hopes into flirtation and dangerous plays

So let the rain clouds come let the rain pour down on me Let the rain come
let it cry its way into my heart and wash away all of my fears
