You have lost your right to act

I am not yours to use

I gave you my life

but I got nothing in return

Break it

Break it

It is time for me to rise from the shadows of my past

It is time to break old loyalties that keeps my soul in chains

You have lost your right to act

I am not yours to use

I gave you my life

but I got nothing in return

I am breaking free

You can't hold me back

I am breaking free

watch me as I rise

I used to be a fighter

I used my voice and screamed

You called me a traitor

but who are you to judge?!

I am breaking free

I crush old lies

I am breaking free

do you dare to follow?

I don't need your acceptance

I despise your faked rules

I raise my voice - can you hear me?

I am breaking free!

I am breaking free

You have lost this fight

I am breaking free

Watch me as I rise
I am breaking free

Now I am free

EUCK YOU
