It felt weird. I had never known anything like it. I had a strange feeling in my stomach. A feeling that everything would be fine though I knew that it would not be there.

A White And A Black Angel Part 1

Chapter 1 A white and a black angel

Iven

I was, as usual, my bed and read. It was very hot and humid in the room. It was a long time ago I had the window open. Tomorrow, two new students starting in my class, a girl and a boy. I do not know if it's chips or nervous. I had, as usual, no desire to go to school. I want to do as my brother and stay at home and studying on the computer. Though he has a reason and it was not me. His reason is that for over 2 months ago, he was the kind of fool with a girl in his class, and it ended not so good. To make a long story short, I can say that so that Hanns' appearance is little changed. Before the fight, he was one of the girl favorites now. Now he is a guy with a very dangerous injury. The girl gave 5 deep wounds in my face with their nails so that now my brother is blind in his left eye. He was so broken by the Hanns' damage was like effect on people that he broke down. He was in his room for weeks and ate almost nothing. The worst thing was that when we had gone to the shop to shop so when we got home so low Hanns' place in ruins. Naturally he was facing the road completely silent and still. When we came into the room so he was just following up. Mom just yelled, while I ran and alerted ambulance. When he entered the hospital so the doctor told me that he died by nutrition deficiency and lack of sleep. Mom was just more worried and in the evenings and most days she just cried. Only leave us daddy and then go Hanns' son and is in a coma. Mom had not even come over to dad left her with 4 children all by herself while he was far away with a young, fresh girl. I have forgotten to tell that I have 2 siblings of. A little sister and little brother. They call us siblings: Evil. It is the first letters of our names. My little brother called - Enimoon. My little sister called - Viktoria. My name is - Iven. And my big brother units - Laviet. All of us kids have black hair and green eyes. We are also pretty pale, but it is because we may not be out much in we moved here. As you can see, not my life been so easy the last few months. But now I must sleep, for tomorrow it will, after all, two new students.

I run through the forest to arrive on time to school today. It saves 5 min by running through the forest. When I come to school, I tear up the door and run into. It has still not called in so I have a minute for me to run off to the cupboard and get the stuff and then off to class room. When I come to class room is Dan and smiles evil against me. In my haste, so I do not have time to do something when he suddenly strengthens the foot just above my bones. It only takes a few seconds, then I am on the floor. One of the girls screaming when I fall just in front of her. I have time to hope that Love. I look up and see Love. He says in a sweet voice. -Well what sweet Iven! To bow before the prettiest girl in this class.

I rise up, I open my mouth to say something but it is not a sound from rememberers. I close my mouth again. I hear someone walking towards us. I turn around and see Miss get going. It was a weak smile on her lips. A beautiful and mysterious smile. A smile that meant that we had to wait to meet our new classmates. She locked up class room and we entered. I walked slowly down to my place. I sit closest to the window on the left side. No one is sitting next to me, Nobody wants to. Miss hoped that I should become friends with any of those new students. When all have gone and sat down, and Miss says.

- Good morning and welcome to a new day in school. Miss takes a deep breath before she continues. As you all know there will be two new pupils to our class today.

One feels the tension in the room. The air is pretty thick in here now. But Miss LABOR like to introduce the two new students now.

- Class 6B health at Angelica and Danny. Miss face had a big happy smile now.

The door opened and Angelica and Danny arrived. Angelica looked like that was about 1.60. Her long hair was enough ivory white down to her waist. Her eyes seemed to have the same color as gold. He found that Angelica looked like an angel. He looked at her clothes, Vita. She had a white t-shirt and a pair of pirate pants in white. Her shoes were white. Her skin appeared to be porcelain. Danny there to look to was 1.75, type as my brother. His black hair was black as night. His blue, green eyes looked almost as cloudy water. He had on a pair of black jeans wear. A black hood jacket with a t-shirt in which it was "Can not you find my love?".

Hanns shoes were black, but also saw the worn out. Hanns skin was also to be china.

Miss looked out over the class. Then she sighed and said:

- Danny, you can sit next to Iven.

Danny looked at Miss and over lassen. He took a deep andertag and then he asked.

- Who? His voice was quite dark.

Miss log a little embarrassing, however, responded to the Hanns question.

- The boy from the 3 line up from units Iven and you can get to sit next to him. He looked away from me. He looked a little disapproval but went quickly through the class room and sat next to me. He just looked straight ahead. I looked away towards Angelica who stood there so beautiful in its embarrassing smile. Miss looked at her and said.

- Angelica you can sit next to. Miss looked out over the class and her gaze stayed on Love. You can sit next to Love. Sa Miss cheerfully.

Angelica hesitated a little but went and sat next to Love.
