

The End

Låttext

I want to cover up my life with my hands
Don't touch me
Don't even look at me
I'm trembling through a forest
And your eyes look at me with blinding despair
I can't do the things you're asking
I can't share what you want me to share
I might wake up at any moment,
And still I know

Queen in my loneliness
And princess of failure in your hands
I want to close my eyes forever
And watch this life as it ends

Thank you for my very first smile
I want to give the very life in my heart
Only for you to feel the sun in your mind

Just need to
Forget
Forget, and move on
Tie down my feelings
Take control of my thoughts
But I can't seem to let you go

Queen in my loneliness
And princess of failure in your hands
I want to close my eyes forever
And watch this life as it ends

Forget
Forget, and move on
Just tie down your feelings
But you won't seem to let me go
