Fairytales

Lets leave this world together into a fantasy land were dreams will come true so come take my hand.

There you find the fairest maidens elves,dragons and foes

There you find mysterious things maybe a pixie buried in the snows.

You hunt in the wildest forest and find adventures everywhere Sneak in the swamp and kill oagers and find glittering treasures in a dragons lair.

But when the night fall upon us and ghosts darkens our mind then we go back to reality to sleep and see what we in our dreams will find.
