Questions

how many times can a
heart be broken
how many times can
it heal?

how much passion
can a human survive?
to feel too much makes
it hard to stay alive...

how many tears
can fall down to the ground
before you dry up
from inside?

how many persons
can live in a heart
before
its too narrow and
lead to fights?

how many kisses
will i feel on my lips
before the day that i die?

how many strange poems
am i going to write
before they throwe me out
from this site!?
