Declaration of Love <3

I've always known that it was there
(and now I'm not talking about my hair)

My love to you is blind but great,
and now I suspect you will hesitate.

I'll not sing a song about my love
nor talk about feelings from above.

Therefore I write this message so that you can read both with, and with lack of, speed.

My love to you I now reclaim and I hope that you feel the same.
