Take me

Take a moment to prospere take a minut to fly to wander among stars and reach the velvet sky

Take a second to love take a minut to fantasize to open up your heart and from then realise

Take a breath of the ocean take the heavens to your heart let it drift in your soul in every piece and every part

Take a silence to listen take the strength to fall to sing the endless tune that comes to us all

Take forever to hold on take the endless time to see Im rigth where you belong

Take me!
