Engelsk. En sån där komplicerad dikt.

Eyes empty glow

used up words

so close to breakdown

but unable to show

strange interruptions

competing to release

what they say is just a part of the disease

praying and begging

for the truth to be lies cause nothing ever helps cause everybody dies

vivid frequencies strong enough to take away

all I ever fought for a meaningful day

things close to consolation all there is to take and give but how precious is it all,

when it's not enough to live?
