Silence

Love

Sometimes, I'm insecure

Shy, and afraid

But you should know

I never felt like this before

It's like the walls within my hearts chamber

Is full of echoes

And I can't drown out the voices anymore

You make me my life so much louder

And it singing in so much brighter

Tune

And I'm hearing

It talking, beating baby

So with it said
I hope it's never done
Cause if you ever should leave me, oh no
You would leave my heart

In

Silence

Life,

Sometimes its funny
Even though time is changing
I'm still feeling the same
Or ever more, now than I ever did before

My love for you

So loud So turn the volume up Cause I can't hold it in, much longer  So with it said I hope it's never done Cause if you ever should leave me, oh no You would leave my heart In  Silence  So to save my tears from falling With this said I hope it's never done  © /K Texten är utskriven från Poeter.se Författaren Hon kallar sig poet med Poeter.se id #38499 innehar upphovsrätten	Coming out
