Why?

Why?

Why all these questions, why not accept life for what it is!

Politics, rules, and laws, why not anarchy?

Life is something you should live out for all you are worth!

Take one day at a time, don't worry about the next.

Wake up in the morning and take a deep breath, and be lucky to be alive to live another day.

The humans, who don't expect that you can die anytime, anywhere are too optimistic and most likely think that nothing will ever happen to them.

I am aware that I can die while I'm writing this, are you?

If you're not, then don't ask why....
