Be kind to another person...

Let someone go Before u when u are on line in the store, pay the bus for one person, tell a sad person she/he look Beautiful, take your time to talk to peopel you know are alone, hug a Child that dont get any love, share your last bread with a hungry homeless person, if you have a angry neighbor, give them a smile and say "what a Lovely day", be thankful for having roof over your head and food on the tabel, give a helping hand to a singel women/man that need help raising theire Children...

If you are nice to one person today, maybe that person show kindness to Another...
