Vi är samma

I see you for what you are
The sky blue eyes
Tell me all your secrets
I see what's hiding
Behind that mask of yours
The innocence in your voice
Can fool any desperate little girl
How many hearts have you broken
With your strong, warm hands
Crushed their souls and spirits
Left them naked and bleeding
The way you run your fingers through your hair
The evil inside you
I see it so clear
I can feel the monster within you

For we are one and the same
