More alive it can never be

I have so many dreams after Goals that I want to touch and feel that I feel now when they still only are my dreams in reality the goal of reaching to others help more there and before it is too late in the future And make the moment, life better and to a fine memory for those who know that they will leave, everyone who loves them and wants them left but that wish, the dream and the goal is not reality ...
Forthcoming death as the only future more alive it can never be ...
Then you know.
