Bubble Power by Josephine Wall

Blood Pressure

In your veins it flows

from shore to shore

For sure

Running high and low

Floating deep and shallow

with the rhythm of your heartbeat

The only fuel is love for this eternal engine

what else could it be?

Life is a mystery

yet so naturally

always ongoing

When awake

as well as asleep

in every breath you take

Blood Pressure

For your sake

From shore to shore

Running high and low

Floating deep and shallow

With the rythm of your heartbeat
