You

Please tell me I'm not dreaming
Seeing this happiness got me believing

That there is more to life than wiping the tears of my many fears
More than the darkness that I got so accustomed to for so many years

I used to stare at the moon in silence
These days I howl like a wolf in defiance

Every step feels more lighter
Towards a future more brighter

Smiling from ear to ear with my eyes closed
Never have I felt so calm and composed

You take me to new places and blissful phases Leaving troubles behind until they leave no traces

In the heat of the moment I can't remember
Those cold nights when we weren't together

Thanks to you I find beauty in every season
Even in the darkest of times you give me a reason to continue ...
