I published my first version of "A benevolent design" Februari the 2nd, 2013, here on Poeter.se. This is a new version of it. I have done the drawing myself.

A benevolent design; revisited.

Are we all part of a benevolent design a code, a constantly mutating law, hypothesis, let's say a concept, of a compassionate and multi-plying mind; that, somewhere along the line, fell in love with an earthly grain, a seed, with a charter to be, something, to become, someone, with a sensible and humane mind?
