Dear Bully

Have sympathy for the hurt you can't see,
You don't feel the pain inside of me.

Taste your words before spitting them out,
I cover up my tears everytime you shout.

If you did understand you wouldn't judge,
The humiliation makes me hold a grudge.

There is a reason why you act the way you do,
I feel sorry for the pain you must feel too.

You put up a front while living in hurt and shame,
But please understand that Im not the one to blame
