Put your arms around me

Put your arms around me until evening comes let your love become me until the morning dawns now it's done on this plane and in the next let your feelings run in waves like waters that trickle down in deep dark caves

I know that only you can save me and that you won't enslave me elegant explanations unfold come and express themselves in exotic refrains masked marauders ride by and show their aristocratic disdain suffer no fools beleaguer no regal craft annoint my lord with oils of grace and gird yourself in the finest lace

put your arms around me until evening comes

and let your love become me until the morning dawns
