The Mermaid's Song (Born to the greenwood)

I was born to the greenwood

she was born to the sea

I was born to be married and she was born to be free

Through greenwoods I wander through birch and aspen I see that tomorrow belongs to no one not to her, not to me

A ship comes a sailin'

it's bound for mystery

it's bound to my heartbreak and bound to destiny

I was born to the greenwood

she was born to the sea

I was born to be married
