In The Time Before The Frost by Göran Gustafsson and LMG

In the evening lit by street lights

I am bound to hearth and home

And through the season's bounty

My heart will always roam

Light a candle for the living

Light a candle for the lost

Light a candle for the child

In the time before the frost

In the night my angel's watching

Over sleep and mighty dreams

And behold, the world is one

Across the valleys and the streams

Light a candle for the living

Light a candle for the lost

Light a candle for the child

In the time before the frost

I am gazing out my window

And the days are almost done

Hungry for the wind of change

And the rise of a newborn sun

Light a candle for the living

Light a candle for the lost

Light a candle for the child

In the time before the frost
