If I spot a swan

avoid most risks

further, be fooled by circumstance one cannot really predict knowledge

when it comes removing wrongs life is reached by the love of abstract universals blind to the mess of ideas when they reverse the central tenet what does not work is more given but if I spot a swan I can be certain if I spot a swan I can be certain that a swan can disprove any statement while this idea has been mistaken
