"Remember: they need us
we don't need them
They are too stupid
to live without us!
Shut it ALL down!!"

the only way to ruin
the bankster system is taking out your money pay as many loans as you can and go live in a van if they dont get your money they dont get power

well it came out some months ago that 2/3 of all judges and attourneys are freemasons
and thats in little sweden this is widespread...

this is real good
the problem with

waking up the sheep
is they have some addiction
some demon
which makes them live in a lala world
they believe everything its not experimental there were 1300 side effects

the ones
"of special interest"

in truth

the 36 snake venoms in it home in on your weakest and attacks it

i was on a stronger

i honoured truth above all else

"In Canada the liberals are making life so miserable for the elderly and people on fixed incomes that they will be lining up for MAID... Just think... over 60,000 poor souls have already had the government kill them... Now all those disability, pension, cpp, and welfare payments worth well over $80,000,000.00 each month will be a bonus for the government.
I wonder which black hole all that cash will disappear into..?"

they payed a lot for the vaccines though but not that amount

hadnt thought of that the housing market is in quadrillions

in the US alone
for example

lots of money at stake...

they will have their

a lot of people are satanists

you just have to open your eyes

ive been in the psychiatric system
since 2006

they do weird
things to you

the things that happen
behind closed doors (that its illegal to film/record voice)
are too hard to explain

anyway in 2007 i was perscribed
parkinson meds
a real shit doctor

didnt take them even once

but you get shakey
from high neuroleptic
prolonged use (tardiv dyskinesi)

then you
get a pill
for that a pill for this

somatic meds
arent better
id actually say

they are worse

ive now over 2 months
reduced my daily
pills by like 12

i got painkillers
then a pill to remove the stomache ulcer
from the pills
got anxiety 24/7..

so i happened to read up on it
and quit both pills

i dont have more pains now and i use natural healing methods
to get well

like acupressure
lifting weights
kung fu massage
hot stone massage
pillow massage...

actually
EMPs arent needed
but they could work that way too since your body is electric from the nanochip
they can "turn off" anyone anytime they want they get the

"5g death ray"
then extreme parkinsonism and if they survive that they get psychotic anger and death despair

seen in early

healthy people where given PCR testing positive

fauci actually was teamed the AIDS parasite (from taking heavy drugs for about 10 years

your immune system gets compromised)

with cheap costing herbs

he was driven to the ground though

yes, all people with

die if they get AZT

EMPs can make the most natural disasters around the world now are DEWs - directed energy weapons from airplane

"Yes, have mentioned this fact to numerous people before. One of the cousins of my close friend was killed by Fruadci bag in the 80s. I remember it vividly, one day he was there and the next he was gone. Flash forward and now we are all in our mid to late 50s, and they killed one of my closest friends with CV19 Hospital protocols. Didn't even know he was sick. One day he goes into the hospital and the next he is gone. He was a GREAT father and man. Fruadci and his brainwashed minions in these deathcare facilities are ALL complicit in his death, as well as at the deaths of at LEAST 22 million (and counting) others.

Let's also not forget that one of Fraudci's biggest critics was Kary Mullis, the inventor of the PCR test. They took him out in late 2019, most likely the same way they took out my friend, as he died of the "flu" .Also these latest mRNA poisons are just their latest weapons, they've NEVER once isolated ANY of THEIR so-called viruses for ALL their vaccines, nor have they proved ANY of them transmissible.....EVER!. So why are we giving today's children dozens of poison vaccines full of mercury, aluminum, various other foreign cell cultures from bovine, aborted babies, and more? EVERYONE must be a LOUD and PROUD anti-vaxxers and WE ALL need to take our own heath into our own hands and STOP visiting these Rockefeller trained and brainwashed "doctors". Find a good holistic ND., Chiropractor, or Osteopath. Heck, I'd visit a shaman before ever stepping foot in one of their deathcare facilities. Learn how to sleep, eat, and drink CLEAN water properly. Take care of you and your family or they will most certainly take care to kill you and those around you."

Yes, you stated ALL facts. If you add up all the deaths from turbo cancers, sepsis, organ failures, various heart failures, and many others.....then yes the number could be significantly larger. That is why I capitalized the word "LEAST". I'm just using one of the more conservative estimates used that counts just direct death from these poisons.

I also haven't visited one of their "Doctors" in over 15 years. I don't take their toxic tests, wear masks, or participate in ANY of their poison propagandas. They've been using venoms and other TOXINS for many decades. Most all of today's "modern" medicine is toxic garbage, designed to hide symptoms, at the cost of introducing more TOXINS into your body. They don't want to address the causes, only defer the immediate symptoms for a body already heavily saturated from toxins due to the chemtrail polluted air, food, and water (not to mention ALL vaccines). Even the airwaves are polluted with frequencies. I've been going down this health journey and rabbit holes for over 15-20 years. IMO, ALL diseases are a result of TOXCITY and nutrient DEFICIENCY, as well as your state of mind. Which is why they put so much mercury and other NEURO toxins into our babies at such a young age. They want us dumbed down and sick during our extremely low quality and short life.

There is no panacea or one size fits all cure. Learn how to properly detox and stay detoxed, which also involves drinking of plenty of clean structured water and nutrient rich foods that are right for YOUR body. Combine that with walking, light weekly exercise, mindfulness stretching, proper breathing and sleeping ....and you will NEVER get sick. I haven't had as much as the sniffles for many years. I do all of the above and much, much more. I used both infrared and steam saunas, as well as red light therapy...and I also do about an hour of breathing/stretching almost everyday. I do Salt caves and periodic float sessions. I plan also trying acupuncture, hyperbaric O2 therapy, and much more.

BTW, I'm about halfway through my 2nd round of Brain Neuro-feedback therapy. It's expensive, but I'd HIGHLY suggest you try it

wow
ive started
lifting weights
or rather just "air boxing" ive lost 13 kg in a month im gonna weigh myself soon when another month has passed by

i used to weigh 140 kg
now its 113kg

i also used to be XS in size this was 2014 when i even shut off the electricity at home i think electricity causes more diseases than anything else

even before we had 5g

my aim was to have no tinnitus no "white noise" in my head and i finally managed to do it wasnt online either

i came to a higher frequency world then even without drugs
sort of like angels and demons and magick

well, its the truckers (canada, australia)
and farmers (europe)
who have defended us
those who know what hard work is and what it means to live but they lost and they are losing...

as for me
im mostly playing computer games nowadays

it all feels so futile

if the point of life is to laugh and have fun then i have no more fun than when playing a MMORPG its sad but true
matrix inside a matrix...
