Won\'t give up, Won\'t break down!

Something is holding me back memories I did\'t know that I have It\'s clearing up now beacuse It\'s writing in the stars

Betray there and there weak back who Is yield I won\'t give up, I won\'t break down because someday It will turn around yes I will be stornng even If It goes wrong

Now when I\'m standing here I belive in hope I will not be afraid anymore
I will be strong even It It goes wrong because I belive It will turn around

It dosen\'t matter what people says It dosen\'t matter how long time It will take Belive on your self and your hope

Prove for your self and no one else
I won\'t give up, I won\'t break down beacuse someday It will turn around I will be strong even If It goes wrong

I won\'t give up, I won\'t break down!
