a man just like you

I'm gonna find me a man just like you, you know

a man as special as you

I know he's out there and I know I can have him you can't be unique as unique as you are there have to be a thousand copies, right? Or God would be stupid and he can't be because he invented you please say that you're a copy!

that smile you give me, how hard can it be to reduplicate the beauty of voice and words from your lips it shouldn't be hard at all to hear it in some other bar

I need a guy just like you may he be chinese brasilian

or Islantic

as long as I find him

soon!
