En notis

Jag var nyförälskad.

Warmth

I have no words, I wont even try right now.

Im just so warm.

There is only one situation when you enjoy feeling like a cliché. I want to paint my heart everywhere, on all the walls and all over my body, I want to draw it on notes and give to people, I want to draw it in letters and send to people, I want to show how warm and glowing it is!

I might cut it out so it can glow for all to see..!
