Liten kärleksdikt

Winner of my heart

You are the winner of my heart
Promise me to never break it apart
I am reaching for you
Are you feeling it to?
I promise to never let you go
That I hope you'll always know

You're like a star shining so bright
It lights up my dark night
That I'd find you I never knew
But I guess wishes does come true

Before you my tears fell like rain
And my life was all in pain
Like an angel you came to me
You and me, I wish it will always be
