I will make you want me

They are always thinking of me, adoring me,
loving me
but never wanting me.

And as they see me
they tend to look right at me, see straight through me.

I always tell them:
do not ever try to lie to me,
do not ever try to hurt me but please, do try to want me.

However, it is always just me,
against I, myself and me.
