This Love Thing

"Love of my life, my soulmate", in you.. I'll allways have my faith!"

In the sunset we walk on a empty beach,
i wont let you of reach.

We walked in the sand,
and suddenly you just took my hand?

You smiled at me and said:

"Hihi, its just a little bit funny you know?

All this week i thought that you'd realise how much i wanted you to know how i felt, and I tried to show...but you didn't seem to care at all.? it was like, if I'd call you all the time on the phone, and you'll never answer my call..

But know your telling me that you are feeling the same way i've felt all this week?
I thought that you saw me as a geek?

when you think at that day when we got married just for fun?, well you can't say that we did know that it would end up like this, yea like it was ment to be done..?

But anyway, i'll just have one thing to say...

I haven't been happier than I'am today, because you will allways have a special place in my heart and NOONE can take it away!
