Just Walk Away

There's no trust, not anymore

It can never be like before

This time you've gone to far

You hurt everyone you've met

Now I know who you really are

I'll never forgive and I'll never forget

You don't know what love is

I don't care what you have to say

You have turn my love into hate

I hate you, just walk away

Just walk away

I'm just waiting for the rain to fall

Your deceits has turned my heart to stone

I don't think you love anyone in this world at all

Well, I'll be better off alone

Who's heart are you breaking now?

Who's heart are you breaking now?

I will never cry again

cause it don't take away the pain

I'm just laughing at all your lies

You made me hard as rock, now I realize

I regret that I ever met you

There's nothing left to say and there's nothing left to do

So fuck you!

I hate you
